IRB MODIFICATION APPROVAL

February 5, 2021
Kaylyn Jackson, M.Ed
kgjack2@emory.edu

Title:	The Liar's Dividend: The Impact of Deepfakes and Fake News on Trust in Political Discourse
Principal Investigator:	Kaylyn Jackson
IRB ID:	MOD001-STUDY00000093
Funding:	Name: Emory University; Name: Georgia Institute of Technology
IND, IDE or HDE:	None
Documents Reviewed:	None

Dear Dr. Kaylyn Jackson:

Thank you for submitting the above-referenced amendment request. The Emory IRB reviewed and approved this amendment under the expedited review process on 2/4/2021.

This amendment includes the following:

- Schiff_Schiff_sociobehavioral_protocol_deepfakes.docx
- Consent Form
- Lucid - IRB Methodology .pdf
- Survey
- Kaylyn Jackson Schiff has been added to this team
- Waiver of Documentation of Consent

In conducting this protocol, you are required to follow the requirements listed in the Emory Policies and Procedures, which can be found at our IRB website.

Sincerely,

Ashton Hughes
Research Protocol Analyst

Your stamped consent form is available under the "Documents" tab.

Now that your submission has been approved, please take a few moments to complete the Emory IRB Satisfaction Survey. We will use your responses to improve our service to the Emory research community. We appreciate your feedback!