Mr Dion,
with all the financial instability how do you plan on dealing with the credit card corporations wether big three,department stores ect..I personally thing if a legislation can be mandated that all credit companies wether they be canadian or american or from where-ever be capped at 15% interest rates on balances there would be less bankruptcies, they could actually be paid off and Canadians would be able to afford to spend and build back up the economy. What do you think?

PS.. i liked your attack on the cons for doing nothing & having no plan to deal with the economy issue.. so your not all bad.. just i feel like youve ditched your left-base at school we are learning about how Greens, NDP, Bloc, & even reform party rose as regional protest parties because they felt as if the national parties cut out the interests of canadians from their agenda.. so take a lesson from that & appeal to your ppl

BE MORE LIKE OBAMA... you dont have to make a huge deal about how the war was wrong.. just some kind of dedication to peace in the near futur..
