SMHC_Who_Shapes_the_Law_README.pdf

This is the readme file for the data and code associated with “Who Shapes the Law? Gender and Racial Bias in Judicial Citations” by John Szmer, Laura P. Moyer, Susan B. Haire, and Robert K. Christensen.

The Supplemental Materials file, available on the Cambridge Core site, contains detailed descriptions of the variables used in the analyses presented in the article. It also contains several additional robust check analyses (and accompanying discussions). Due to space limitations, there is an additional Dataverse Appendix containing additional robust checks and discussions.

SMHC_Who_Shapes_the_Law_Replication_Data.dta

The SMHC_Who_Shapes_the_Law.dta file is in Stata 17.0 format. It contains all of the variables necessary to replicate the analyses, tables, and figures discussed in the manuscript, Supplemental Materials, and the Dataverse Appendix. A further discussion of the dataset may be found in the Supplemental Materials file.

SMHC_Who_Shapes_the_Law.do

This file contains all of the code necessary to replicate the analyses, tables, and figures presented in the manuscript, Supplemental Materials, and the Dataverse Appendix.
