I confirm that I have read and understood the information sheet for this study and have had the opportunity to ask questions about it.

I understand that my participation in the interview is entirely voluntary, and that I can withdraw from the study at any time, without having to give a reason. I understand that my participation or non-participation in the study will not lead to any penalty.

I agree to the interview being audio recorded and to the use of anonymous quotes in publications. I understand that while all attempts will be made to keep material confidential, the small size and familiarity of the interview group means that my identity could become apparent to those familiar with the case.

I understand that I will be provided transcripts of this interview and will be given five working days to withdraw or amend any information contained therein.

I agree to participate in this interview.
