This document defines the variables in asylum_data.csv, which contains the data for individual respondent observations. See Supplementary Materials document for more detailed descriptions on variable measurement.

Variables

respid – unique respondent identifier.

cty – respondent's home country.

duration – length of time taken to complete survey, in seconds.

ConsTrt – indicator for exposure consequences treatment.

InfoTrt – indicator for exposure information treatment.

SharePref – respondent's self-reported preference for allocating asylum-seeker applications.

PreferProp – indicator for preferring proportional allocation.

ShareFErank – respondent's self-reported rank preference for allocating asylum-seeker applications by country of first entry.

ShareSFArank – respondent's self-reported rank preference for allocating asylum-seeker applications equally across all countries.

SharePrank – respondent's self-reported rank preference for allocating asylum-seeker applications proportionally across countries.

AsylumHome – measure of support for increasing or decreasing number of people granted asylum in home country: greatly decrease (-2), decrease (-1), neither increase nor decrease (0), increase (1), greatly increase (2).

IdeoScale – self-placement on the left-right political ideological scale, from left (0) to right (10).

L – indicator for being on the left in three-bin ideological classification (0-4 on IdeoScale).

C – indicator for being in the center in three-bin ideological classification (5 on IdeoScale).

R – indicator for being on the right in three-bin ideological classification (6-10 on IdeoScale).

SyriaKnowledge – indicator for correctly answering Syria knowledge question.

TariffKnowledge – indicator for correctly answering tariff knowledge question.

DublinKnowledge – indicator for correctly answering Dublin knowledge question.

Knowledge – sum of correct knowledge question answers.

Female – indicator for being female.

Age – self-reported age.

EmpStatus – self-reported employment status.

EISCED – highest level of education achieved, according to European version of the International Standard Classification of Education (ISCED).

IncomeDecile – decile of household income in home country.

RegNumStatusQuo – number of asylum-seeker applications that would be allocated to respondent's home country under the status quo allocation by country of first entry.

RegNumSame – number of asylum-seeker applications that would be allocated to respondent's home country under equal allocation to all countries.

RegNumProportional – number of asylum-seeker applications that would be allocated to respondent's home country under proportional allocation across countries.

weight – post-stratification survey weight.