I feel the the Republicans are more hypocritical. Especially when it relates to gun policies.

I think that all people can be hypocritical depending on who they are talking to and what topic they are discussing.
user2

I do agree that gun control is a real hot button issue and that the Republicans do talk out of both sides of their mouths very often regarding this topic.
user2

I absolutely agree with you. It's all about lip service to me.
user1

It is crazy that people think that "thoughts and prayers" after a tragedy will fix anything but the Republicans claim to care about people and their right to life and safety.
user2

Another issue where a lot of Republicans are hypocrites is in their claims that all lives are precious but they will let immigrants be treated like second class citizens and let them suffer all the time.
user2

I saw a just within this year there were over 200 deaths due to mass shootings. I understand how they sit on the side and do nothing.
user1

Oh yes!! Pro-life but when it's relating to gun control? What happens?? Nothing.
user1

That HYPOCRISY at its finest.
user1

We need to vote for more Senate seats. Something has to change.
user1

Very true only the lives and concerns of the rich matter to these people. The thing that baffles me is the support they get from the disenfranchised and the poor. Silly people don't understand that the Republicans will never make their lives better.
user2

Yes we need to get Democrats in office so that the mess that has been made can be fixed. This is especially true with the way the Supreme court is now. It is all very scary.
user2

It's been nice chatting with you. We are just about out of time. have a good day.
