I think Republicans are more hypocritical. Take abortion - a bunch of older, white males decide what women should do with their bodies.

What do you think? I'm open to debate.
user1

Personally, I think hypocrities varies person to person rather than politic to politic.
user2

That is also true.
user1

Do you believe there are any differences between Democrats and Republicans?
user1

I feel that Republicans are more concerned with the bottom line and less concerned with the well-being of others.
user1

I mean I think there are some Republicans who think its okay for women to have no way to prevent pregnancy which in my opinion should be forced to live through pregnancy for the rest of their lives but there are democrats that believe in prolife as well
user2

Also true. Perhaps I should be talking about Conservatives and I feel there are more of those in the Republican party.
user1

Republicans to me seem yes, more conservitive I think would be a good choice
user2

I live in California and it is a solidly Democratic state so I am probably biased in my thinking.
user1

I am not saying all Liberals are right, either. Some of them are too far left.
user1

No, everyone has right to their opinions and ironically both parties agree to that just on varying levels
user2

The one thing
user2

Personally, I am more liberal t when it comes to social issues and more conservative regarding monetary issues.
user1

The one thing i've learned in life is that it is not black and white but rather a varying shade of gray
user2

It is useful to look at life through someone else's eyes now and then to gain perspective.
