Who is more hypocritical? That is not an easy question because both parties have their issues. What do you think?
user1

I agree that both parties can be hypocritical, but I feel that republicans are more hypocritical
user2

Hi Layla, I get that about the Republicans. There are some that are Trumpers
user1

They don't serve those who voted them into office.
user1

On the other hand I am not sure what is going on with the Democratic party.
user1

I don't understand how they say they are pro life but don't care about children's lives, only embryos
user2

Our constitution gives us certain rights and freedoms. I don't understand how Rep. want to take away a woman's choice.
user1

On the other hand, since the pandemic freedom of speech under the democrat's has been suppressing voices.
user1

Me either, Cant even pass common sense gun laws to protect innocent children
user2

Yes, I agree, we need common sense gun laws but then if we look at who is funding their campaign's they are bought by the gun industry.
