hello
user1

It's hard to say, republicans and democrats are both incredibly hypocritical.
user2

I was thinking along similar lines.
user1

They are both pretty bad.
user1

They act like they are doing good things but they are really just being hateful toward the other side
user2

I think I may be able to find some examples.
user1

After this pandemic they really let their true colors fly.
user1

democrats are irresponsible financially, but conservatives are harmful to society as a whole
user2

If I recall more democrats have been in the news for not practicing what they preach yes?
user1

Yes the economy is proof of what you say.
user1

yes absolutely, democrats are over-pushy about mask mandates but can be seen schmoozing with relaxed social distancing
user2

Yes, I can name names. Play the name and shame game but there is guilt on both parties.
user1

i think republicans are also not realistic enough about the dangers of the coronavirus spread
