Republicans are definitely more hypocritical.

I think Republicans are much more hypocritical.
user2

They claim to be fiscally responsible, but always raise the national debt. They claim to be church going folk, but most of the bigots, xenophobes, etc are part of their party.
user2

Yes, I agree
user1

They are always the opposite of what they claim to be.
user1

They claim to be for the small business owner, but their politicians bow to large corporate interests. They claim to not be war hawks, but they do everything they can to inflate the military budget. I could go on and on.
user2

Yeah, but their voters always believe them no matter how many times they lie.
user1

I'm not saying that Democrats are never hypocrites, but the Republican party is basically built on hypocrisy.
