Hi there! Well, as a democrat, I can say without hesitation that republicans are more hypocritical.
user1

Anyone there?
user2

Yes! Hi!
user1

Hi, I am a democrat but I would say both are hypocritical.
user2

To some degree, sure, and both sides are in it for themselves. But Republicans are on another level.
user1

Hi, yes I agree that republicans are more critical. While I have several friends who are Republican I find it hard to discuss issues with them peacefully.
user2

Agreed completely. I have many republican friends and a political discussion always ends the same way, with an argument
user1

On the critical issues such as abortion, taxes, gun control, voting rights we are so different!
user2

Not even on the same planet as far as those issues go.
