I vote Republicans. What do you think?
user2

Are you there?
user2

I vote Democrat
user1

Yeah here
user1

Hello.....
user1

I'll give an example. Abortion...they want it outlawed under any circumstance, including rape and incest. No woman should be forced to carry a child of someone who raped her.
user2

Republicans are so worried about unborn children, but they don't want to spend money to help those who are living in poverty.
user2

I will help the people
user1

So, they said I was chatting with another Democrat. I'm interested in why you think they're more hypocritical.
user2

Yeah its very interesting.
