I believe republicans are more hypocritical.
user1

What about you?
user1

That is an easy question. Republican definitely more hypocritcal.
user2

Just start with Trump. They sold out their supposed ideals
user2

They have complete fealty to a man who is pretty much the opposite of all the moral values they claimed to have
user2

Another thing that is highly hypocritical is they are more than willing to spend spend spend when a Republican is president.
user2

I don't believe Trump knows what it's like to be moral.
user1

But when a Democrat is president, suddenly they have to have an iron fist on the budget
user2

Trump is as amoral as a human can get
user2

They'll do whatever it takes to make democrats look bad.
