hi!
user2

who do you think are more hypocritical?
user1

I honestly think Republicans (and I don't consider myself part of either party, so this is more of a neutral position). They say they care for the American public, but their choices hardly ever reflect that.
user2

How about you?
user2

i agree. Democrats can definitely be hypocritical a lot, but Republicans are just so reactionary
user1

there has never been a war Republicans have been against, but they claim to be pro-life
user1

right! Democrats are far from perfect, but they at least try to follow through with their ethics and morls
user2

morals
user2

YES to the war thing
user2

They also leave refugees to die basically
user2

Republicans change their opinions based on what the popular liberal view is
user1

yep. they also love to take credit for things democrats did (the vaccine/pandemic, for example)
user2

(I mean democrats helping safety w/ the pandemic)
user2

they claim to support the free market but also want limits on immigration
user1

soooo true
user2

they support the police no matter how much they violate people's privacy
user1

unions are also a part of the free market, but republicans obviously are against them
