It is very clear that republicans are more hypocritical.
user1

I honestly see both as hypocritical. Both have their beliefs and want their viewpoints heard.
user2

Why do you think republicans?
user2

Because they talk about wanting their own freedoms the most while attempting to restrict the freedom of others.
user1

Valid point. Do you have specific examples of the freedoms they want and restirct?
user2

They want their guns while they try to restrict women's right to abortions
user1

Is there any reason you think people should be able to own guns?
user2

Theres nothing wrong with owning guns, but if we just give guns to everyone without background checks it will lead to dangerous situations where people have guns who shouldn't
user1

I dont think republicans are against background checks on guns, they just don't want excessive checks or the possibility of the government taking away their guns entirely.
user2

Do you own a gun?
user2

No I don't own a gun, but in Texas they passed a law that makes it possible to buy a gun without a background check and praised this new law at the NRA this week.
user1

If I lived in a more dangerous area I would consider purchasing a gun for self defense but never for any other reason
