There is no doubt that the party of Lincoln is chock full of hypocrites.
user1

Republicans are more hypocritical. They want tax cuts, but only to the middle class and not the rich.
user2

I like that, Party of Lincoln. He was a bit of a hypocrite himself with the Emancipation Proclamation.
user2

Republicans are supposed transparent and want less government, but they benefit as much as Democrats do politically and personally.
user2

Hypocrite? Emacipation Proclimation? You are confused.
user1

Lincoln was the bravest man in America when the nation was tearing itself apart. He stood up for goodness. His party now stands for selfishness.
user1

Okay, your opinion and somewhat rude. But on to other topics.
user2

So Republicans only want certain government involvement when it benefits them and not necessarily what is good for all.
