Interesting topic, lol. I'd have to say Republicans, though Dems can be too.

I think republicans are more hypocritical because they claim to value freedom and limited government, but they try to ban abortion, want to ban books from schools, and try to force christian beliefs on the whole country
user2

Very true. Their limited government argument falls flat when they pass laws to limit the ability of local governments to regulate themselves, i.e. min wage, sanctuary cities, etc.
user1

yep exactly
user2

civil war monument removal, etc.
user1

Alabama made it illegal for cities to remove monuments, despite several cities wanting to do so
