Hi

Hey Joe
user2

What is your opinion about marijuana legalization?
user1

I am completely for it
user2

Me too. In what kind you support it? Do you think it is necessary or kind of freedom?
user1

I think it should be regulated like alcohol is, I don't use it personally but I don't think it should be illegal.
user2

Me too. I think people have right to deal with it. People should be aware of it too.
user1

The topic I was given was actually whether Democrats or Republicans are more hypocritical lol
user2

Which i think Republicans, in my opinion are way more hypocritical. Even talking amongst my friends they just say one thing but believe another.
user2

Obviously Republicans are hypocritical. They don't want to adopt themselves for the modern years.
user1

Way too stuck in the past, definitely close minded.
user2

They still following the rules without even knowing the fundamental things of those rules. This is ridiculous.
user1

I just don't get why people worry so much about what other people do, just worry about yourself and let people love and live how they want.
user2

Exactly. They always wanted to advice others. And not even know what is the basic thing.
user1

I have very conservative Republican friends that still think getting a tattoo is "taboo" but will get smashed at a bar and want to drive. Just have the wrong ideals.
user2

Or morals really not ideals
user2

People also hates LGBTQ community. This is not the right way to treat them.
user1

Ugh absolutely
user2

Let people marry who they want, it's not hurting anybody.
