Hi there

Hi, how's it going?
user2

What are your thoughts on the topic?
user2

I'm doing okay. Actively watching the news with the whole Ukranian-Russia conflict.
user1

Same. It's pretty mind-boggling.
user2

I tend to be in the middle about who is more hypocritical. I think we both do things that sort of conflict what we say we stand for.
user1

I have to be honest though, the Republicans tend to be the more hypocritical ones as of late! How about you?
user1

I agree that both parties are pretty hypocritical. I think that Republicans over the last 10 years or so have stopped standing for anything at all, so it is difficult to even call out hypocrisy.
user2

One example is the Supreme Court nomination. They stalled Obama because it was too close to election yet ram through the last of Trump's picks. I hope they don't try to do anything with this latest pick of Biden's.
user1

I agree!
user1

I don't even recognize the Republican party anymore.
user1

Only one that seems to have any morals is Romney.
user1

He at least seems to have some spine left, yeah
