I definitely feel the Republicans are more hypocritical. For example, Texas Republicans called out Beto O'Rourke for "politicizing" the school shootings in Uvalde. Yet Ted Cruz accused Democrats of doing the exact same thing.

I think that the Republicans are more hypocritical than the Democrats. The Republicans are ready to do whatever Donald Trump wanted them to do even though they knew it was wrong

I agree with you on that one. Republicans seem to do that a lot.

Yes, that's right. And they feign outrage at just about everything Democrats do. Al Franken left the Senate due to accusations of impropriety. Yet Matt Gaetz, Jim Jordan and other Republicans have been accused of the same and they are still in office.

There is an acronym for Republicans who do this sort of thing, something like IOIYAR--It's okay if you're a Republican.

Republicans are masters of projection as well.
