So I think Republicans are more hypocritical for several reasons. First, they tend to always be the ones who criticize athletes and ask them to "stick to sports", but then Republican athletes (or former athletes) have no problem offering their own opinions.

so what the topic for chat ?

The question is: "Who do you think is more hypocritical, Democrats or Republicans?"

What do you think

republicans for sure, they talk a lot about stuff that benefit them but when the same thing is use for the minorities they start to panic
