This is an easy one. We have republicans opening cheering Putin yet claiming that they are for democracy. They win hands down.

I think both parties are full of hypocrites, but the hypocrisy of Republicans is just naked.
user2

That is a very good point, most Democrats are also hypocrites.
user1

I don't think you can be a politician without going against your previous stances as some point. But the Republicans are shameless about it. At least the Democrats will try to explain themselves when they get caught out.
user2

Yea there is something more fundamentally incoherent with republican ideology in the context of a democracy.
user1

To be clear, when I'm talking about "Democrats" and "Republicans" i mean specifically the politicians, not the average party member.
user2

Biden is full of it too tho. It really is everyone.
user1

same here, I am only talking about the members of each party that are actually in positions of power
