I think that both sides can be pretty hypocritical about different topics. Overwhelmingly though I find that republicans can be very very hypocritical about not living the life they preach

To be sincere, I think Democrats are more hypocritical. Mostly due to their views on LGBT vs Women issues.
user2

With LGBT to Women issues do you mean involving trans-women in women's spaces?
user1

Yes.
user2

Also their cancel culture
user2

cancel culture is on both sides though, I think democrats are more vocal though in general

Nobody is perfect. We have all erred at a point, why ostracize someone for same thing we might have done without being caught?
