Hey Tom

What's your thoughts on this question?

Hi Joe

I think I could go on for hours on how hypocritical most Republicans are, haha
user1

Same here...Republicans by a mile
user2

But I think a good example would be their insistence on how morally wrong some progressive ideas are because of how they go against God and the Bible.
user1

What gets me the most, is how the religious right has hijacked the Republican party and feel they have higher moral ground than Democrats
user2

Sounds like we had the same idea!
