Republicans are most definitely more hypocritical

I think both Democrats and Republicans are hypocritical at times, but Republicans are certainly hypocritical more consistently.

They are supposedly against abortions but many prominent Republican men force their mistresses to get abortions

Democrats are much less hypocritical
user1

They say they are the party of "family values" but our dear Republican ex president Trump was married 3 times and cheated multiple times on Ivana his first wife
user1

family values my ass
user1

Absolutely. Republicans also seem to have more of a culture of â€œsticking togetherâ€ to vote, whereas Democrats are more freethinkers. So Republicans may vote against their own personal beliefs sometimes for the good of their party. Democrats are more true to themselves.

Democrats can think for themselves yes
