Republicans are more hypocritical
user1

I would say Democrats and Republicans are equally hypocritical. They both often say one thing in public and then vote a different way.
user2

I would actually agree with that statement
user1

They are equally hypocritical.
user1

I agree. I think Republicans support worse positions, but when it comes to being hypocritical, Democrats are equally bad.
user2

Democrats give lip service to support working people, but very often vote in favor of corporations, the rich, and defense contractors.
user2

Republicans definitely support worse positions and pretend they are for something they are actually not.
user1

Letting the child tax credit expire was a particularly blatant example of that.
