I'd say the republicans are probably the most hypocritical out of the bunch.
user1

I personally believe that Republicans are more hypocritical as well.
user2

In regards to the first amendment, they constantly complain about getting banned off of social media. But the first amendment only applies to actions the government takes to silence speech.
user1

Which they currently do in spades in regards to book bans, banning topics in schools, and a host of other actions they're currently taking in states across the country.
user1

Republicans are also more likely to wear their religiosity as a shield
user1

But defend adulterers and those that commit sexual crimes in their midst.
user1

They also seem to abhor the actual teachings of Jesus.
user1

Who spoke constantly against the hoarding of wealth and taught that the only good life is one in service of the poor and downtrodden.
user1

Hmm... what else.
user1

I agree with you as well. Republicans tend to overlook the actual facts of why something has happened, such as blaming the current president for the Russo-Ukraine war when the Trump Administration cut funding to the country.
user2

Mhm. Trump also essentially gave Russia the gift of cratering relations between the United States and NATO.
user1

And quite literally called Putin a genius for invading the country.
user1

Or in the case of the recent tragedy in Texas, the perpetrator had no history of a mental illness, yet the GOP Majority leader Mitch McConnell, as well as Greg Abbott blamed mental illness as the cause of the entire tragedy.
user2

Yep, great points there.
user2

Instead of looking towards solutions of stricter gun controls or universal background checks in this country.
user2

That's something I truly despise. If we're going to bring up mental illness, which can absolutely be a contributing factor in shooting events, why do they never make any proposals towards effecting change in mental health?
user1

It's simply a distraction to take heat off the NRA
user1

Also, the NRA funds thousands, or even upon millions of dollars towards GOP senators.
user2

Exactly.
user2

Anyways, it was great chatting with you, I can see that our time is coming to a close here.
user2

Yep.
user1

Good talking with you as well
user1

Have a nice day, my friend.
user2

You as well.
