Right now, I feel like Republicans are more hypcritical.
user1

ok
user2

They care so much about unborn fetus, but little for the life of the born humans that are here. Children are dying in schools, and all they have to offer is thoughts and prayers.

ok
user2

gun not allowed that problem solution
user2

And they want small government, which is fine. But then they want to dictate morality to us, and want the government literally in our bedroom. Small government should mean less social programs, but also less government intrusion. They want no social programs, but also to restrict freedom.
user1

is not correct
user2

small big is not a matter
user2

I think our societal problem goes deeper than gun control at this point. We are in decline, but proper gun control would help.
user1

problem handle government is matter
user2

How so? Please elaborate.
user1

i no
user2

Indeed.
