Hey
user1

republicans they always say one thing then do another, it is evident by how they vote
user2

hi
user2

in the past few months they voted down 30 dollar insulin
user2

Democrats did their good job during covid -19
user1

mostly voted no on the veterans bill for burn pit
user2

voted no for money to get more baby formula for the needy
user2

I felt democrats will be more helpful in all situations
user1

voted no for money to replace lead pipes
user2

They did their job well in all bad times.
user1

are blocking legislation on gun laws
user2

They helped many peoples by giving food, shelter, clothes and so on during covid times
user1

they voted down suspending the gas tax the same day they held a press conference blaming biden for high gas price
user2

they literally do everything they claim democrats do ten fold with no repercussions
user2

they vote against the will of their voting base, and for some reason the base keeps voting them in office
user2

Ohh I don't agree with that
user1

they tried to get rid of the affordable healthcare act with out even having a new plan to take its place
user2

It is not the right way
