I think Republicans are the most hypocritical by far. Just look at their behavior around abortion, supreme court nominees and the behavior of the president

I believe Republicans are more hypocritical as, regardless of what Biden does, they are unhappy regardless. They shifted their insults from him being a nonexistent, ineffective president to a meddling Warhawk in one week. There feelings on Putin have vastly shifted in this timeframe as well.

Totally agree, just 2 weeks ago, Trump and Tucker Carlson were saying how strong Putin was as a leader. And I'll never forget the Trump rallies where they were wearing Putin t-shirts
