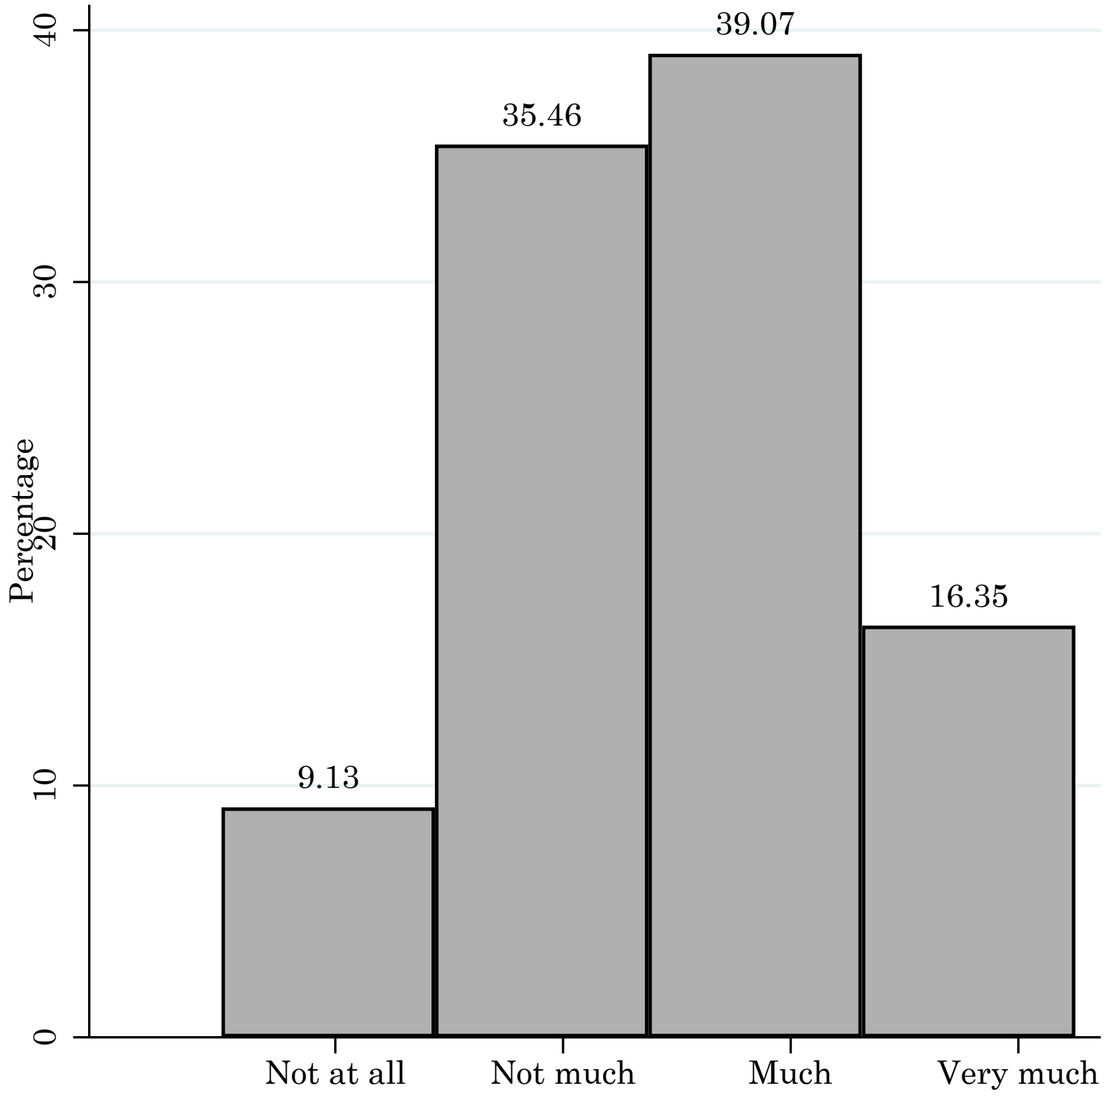
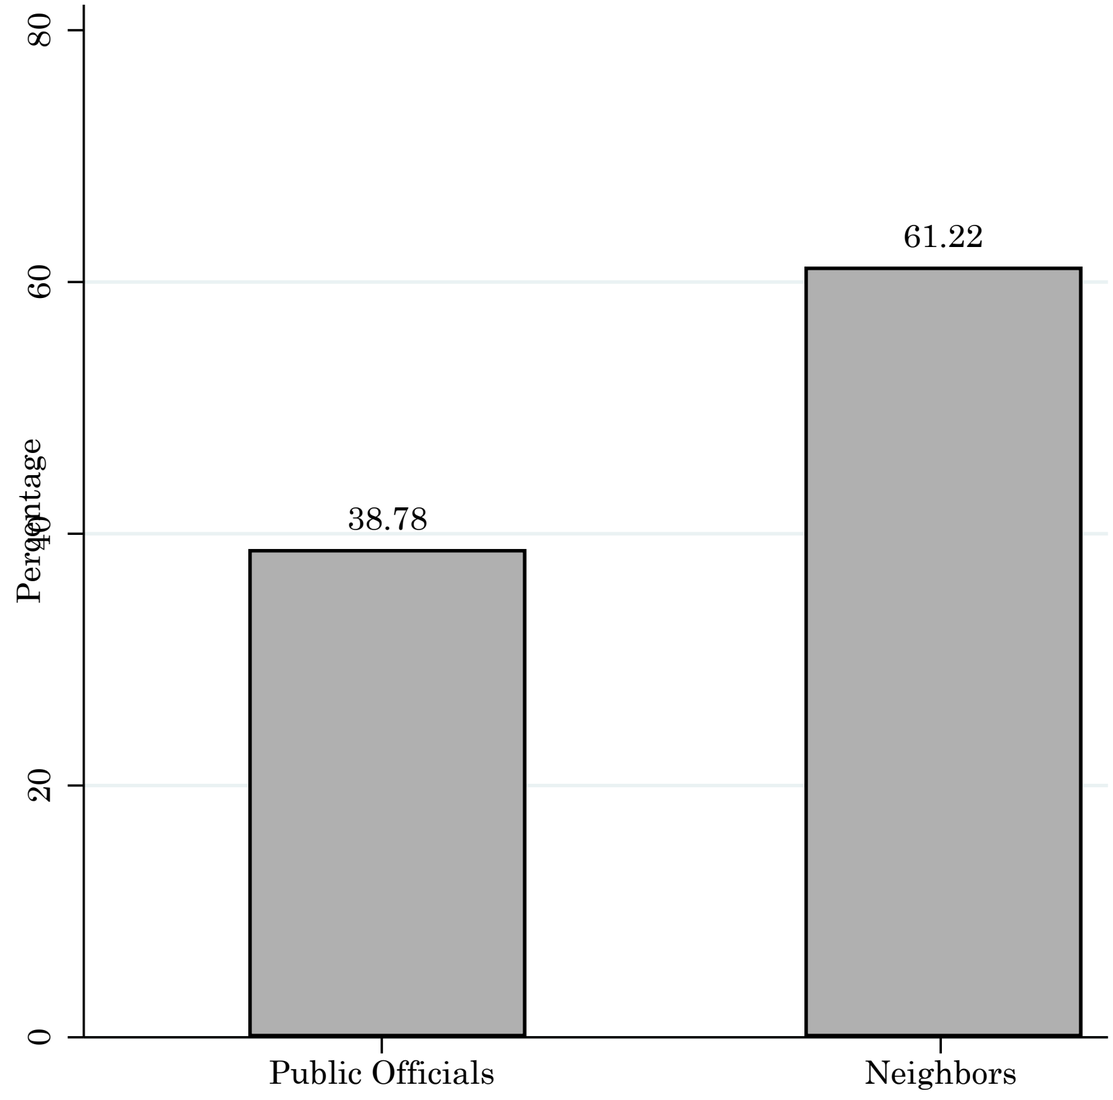
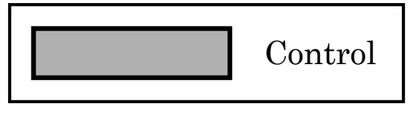
How likely is it that the city government will listen to neighbors requests?







Who do you prefer to decide the investment projects to be carried out in your commune?