Important Notes:

- Funding Changes: It is the principal investigator's responsibility to notify the IRB if a study's funding status changes. If the study receives external funding at any point, you must notify the IRB. Funding can alter review requirements.
- Amendments: All proposed changes to the study (including personnel, procedures, and/or documents) must be approved by the IRB in advance through the amendment process.
- Unanticipated Problems involving Risks to Subjects or Others: The research team must inform the IRB of all unanticipated problems that occur during the research study that may involve risks to research subjects or others – these include, but are not limited to, events and/or loss of information that may have physical, psychological, social, legal, or economic impact on the research subjects or others.
- End of Study: When all study activities are complete or the study is no longer active, please submit a termination request to formally close it. Termination requests are submitted in AURA by selecting "Termination by PI".
