TO THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE DANISH SOCIALIST PEOPLE'S PARTY

On the occasion of your Party Congress, we wish to express our sincere greetings and best wishes for success.

We are convinced that your Congress resolutions will contribute to the further affirmation of the Danish Socialist People's Party as a democratic and revolutionary force, and that your Party shall, together with other Danish progressive and democratic forces, contribute to the permanent process of democratic transformation of your society to the benefit of working class and people of your wonderful country.

Dear Comrades, Dear Delegates,

Many years of true friendship and mutual respect characterize the relations between our two countries, further supported by cooperation and good contacts between the Danish Socialist People's Party and the League of Communists of Yugoslavia. We are at the same time pleased to say that relations and cooperation between the two parties are proceeding sucessfully on the principles of equality and mutual respect and non- interference in the internal affairs. The League of Communists of Yugoslavia is deeply convinced that only freedom, national sovereignity, territorial integrity and equitable cooperation among the nations and states, free development of each country without outside interferences, are essential for overall progress In the world and for establishment of lasting peace and security, with necessary participation of all the nations and all the countries, regardless of their size. We wish to see cooperation in Europe and in the world extended and strengthened, irrispective of different social systems by countries, so as to overcome the world block division and create conditions for comprehensive development of international relations and for lasting peace.

Dear Delegates,

In the present-day world, which due to block division, permanent arms race, an everwidening gap between the developed and developing countries, is full of threat to peace, it is necessary now more than ever to establish equitable and meaningful dialogue between all the forces struggling for peace, for democratisation of international relations and for overall progress in the world. Such a dialogue which must be based on a consistent respect for the principles of full equality, independence and autonomy, without any outside interference and with mutual respect for differences, should result in gradual overcoming of present differences in the workers and progressive movements in the aim to curb and isolate cold-war, neo-colonialistic antidemocratic and all other reactionary forces acting from points of power, expolitation and domination.

Starting from the fact that each party and movement are solely responsible to their own working class and people, and that each revolutionary movement is entitled to an autonomous and independent choice of its own ways of struggling for and building of socialism, in conformity with specific conditions in each country, the League of Communists of Yugoslavia has been successful in developing very broad cooperation with numerous communist, socialist and other progressive and democratic parties and movements in the world.

Policy of non-alignment, which is a lasting orientation of the League of Communists of Yugoslavia and of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, expresses best the aspiration of nations and countries struggling for equtable international cooperation based on active peaceful coexistence. That policy is pursued today by over hundred countries of the world, with an essential aim to establish full political and economic independance of all the countries, free and undisturbed development of all nations, to overcome block division of the world and bring about new and more just international economic order, stands essentially as such for elimination of barriers among people. Taking those points of the departure, the League of Communists of Yugoslavia and our country on the whole stand for elimination of all focuses of crisis in the world, fully supporting all the nations struggling for national independence and right to survive. I must mention here that we are concerned abour deteriorating crisis in the Middle East and developments in Africa. We beleive that the lasting peace in the Middle East would not be possible if, among others, the national rights of Palestinian people were not recognized, including the right to their own sovereign State and the right of each State to exist. Yugoslavia also stands for the strict observance of independence and determination for non-alignment by African countries and their right to determine their own ways of development, freely and autonomously without any interference.

At the same time, we fully support, politically, morally and materially the liberation movements of Zimbabve, Namibia and South Africa in their long and heavy struggle against racist colonial regimes.

Dear Comrades, Dear Delegates.

We are sure that you know that the Yugoslav communists are going to have their XIth Congress soon, which shall provide for a new impetus to creative initiatives of our workpeople, faster development of socialist self-management in the aim to achieve the socialist ideal where the workman is a decisive factor in the manufacturing and in the extended reproduction processes and directly governs conditions, means and results of his work. At the same time, our Congress will be an opportunity for the members of the delegation of your Party to see on the spot the accomplishments of the Yugoslav communists and other workpeople in our country.

Thank you for the invitation of your Party kindly extended to the League of Communists of Yugoslavia to attend your Congress. We take it as a token of our future good relations and cooperation between the two countries and the two parties, to ever increase and widen, fully appreciated by the League of Communists of Yugoslavia. We wish to assure you that the League of Communists of Yugoslavia will do its best to promote and enrich the relations between our two parties.

The Central Committee of the League of Communists of Yugoslavia extends to the Congress of the Danish Socialist People's Party its best greetings and best wishes for successful and rewarding work.
