RE: Interim Framework for Advancing Consideration of Cumulative Impacts; Framework Document, Docket No. EPA-HQ-OLEM-2024-0360

The Wyoming Department of Environmental Quality (WDEQ) appreciates the opportunity to comment on the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) framework document, Interim Framework for Advancing Consideration of Cumulative Impacts, published November 21, 2024 (89 FR 92125). EPA's Interim Framework is generally based on the strategic goals of Executive Order 14096, "Revitalizing Our Nation's Commitment to Environmental Justice for All," which was signed on April 21, 2023. This is broadly outlined in the section entitled, "Why is the EPA Working on Cumulative Impacts?" on pages 8-9 of the Interim Framework. Executive Order 14096 was revoked on January 20, 2025 through Section 2 ("Revocation of Orders and Actions") of President Trump's Executive Order, "Initial Recission of Harmful Executive Orders and Actions." Consequently, WDEQ respectfully requests that EPA withdraw the Interim Framework in order to align with the recently issued Executive Order.
