40) Into which of the following classes you would say your annual household income fall, after taxes?
1. Less than [computed value equivalent to first quintile of households disposable income of the country]
2. Between [computed value equivalent to first quintile of households disposable income of the country] and [computed value equivalent to second quintile of households disposable income of the country]
3. Between [computed value equivalent to second quintile of households disposable income of the country] and [computed value equivalent to third quintile of households disposable income of the country]
4. Between [computed value equivalent to third quintile of households disposable income of the country] and [computed value equivalent to fourth quintile of households disposable income of the country]
5. More than [computed value equivalent to fourth quintile of households disposable income of the country]
6. I don't know
7. I prefer not to answer

The computed values for each country (quintiles for year 2020) can be found at:

https://ec.europa.eu/eurostat/databrowser/explore/all/popul?lang=en&subtheme=livcon.ilc.ilc_ip.ilc_di&display=list&sort=category&extractionId=ILC_DI01