Codebook for State-Level Unemployment Data:

Year: The year corresponding to the observation

Period: The month corresponding to the observation

Labor Force: The number (count) of people in the labor force

Employment: The number (count) of people that are employed

Unemployment: The number (count) of people that are unemployed

Unemployment Rate: The percentage of people who are unemployed relative to the number of people in the labor force

Information on Data Collection:

- The unemployment data in this model is not adjusted for seasonal effects