Codebook for Data Used in Treul and Hansen, "Primary Barriers to Working Class Representation," Political Research Quarterly.

candpct – candidate's vote share in the primary election winwin – binary indicator of whether the candidate won the primary election worker_current_recode – binary indicator for whether the candidate was a worker at the time of the election raceid – unique identifier for each candidate contest candnumb – count of opponents in the candidate's primary election qualnumber – count of quality opponents (elected to prior office) in the candidate's primary election openseat – binary indicator of whether the incumbent is running for reelection in the race quality_cand – factor/categorical variable. 0 = candidate is nonquality nonincumbent, 1 = candidate is quality nonincumbent, 2 = candidate is incumbent total_primary – total dollars contributed toward a candidate's (campaign funds and outside spending). Measured in millions of dollars third – binary indicator for whether candidate runs as a third party candidate or independent dist_income – median income of the congressional district college – percentage of the congressional district's residents who hold four-year college degrees dem_vote – vote share for the Democratic candidate in the most recent presidential election normvote – candidate's normalized vote share candvotes – total number of candidate's votes received tvotes – total number of votes cast for all candidates worker – binary indicator for all candidates coded as workers (both current and former) former_worker – binary indicator for candidates who used to be workers (but are no longer) ideo_extreme – absolute value of Bonica's CFscore measure of candidate ideology logfund – natural log of total primary fundraising fundbin – binary indicator for whether the candidate raised greater than $0 for campaign partydonor – count of donations candidate received from donors to their party's national campaign funds (from Hassell) gop – binary indicator of whether the candidate is Republican toptwo – binary indicator of whether the candidate competed under a top-two primary system