Please note: Talking is not allowed- please turn off your phone and do not talk to other students. If you cause a distraction, you will be asked to leave and will not earn any money. If you have any questions please raise your hand and a helper will come over as soon as possible.

Thank you for attending the session today, we really appreciate your time. Your participation is completely voluntary so you can leave at any time. Do be aware that if you do leave, you will forfeit any money you could have earned. For any specific questions which you don't wish to answer, just leave the answer blank.

This survey is part of joint work between Dr Paul Clist (paul.clist@uea.ac.uk) and Professor Hong Ying-Yi (yyhong@bnu.edu.cn). If you have any concerns you are welcome to contact them by email. We're interested in how students at UEA make decisions, and so we'll ask you a few brief questions. Many of the questions are taken from the World Values Survey or the Global Preference Survey. For these questions we are interested in what you prefer and there is no 'correct' choice.

Your answers here will be completely confidential. You may start whenever you are ready to do so.

1. As you are aware, you will be paid for your help today with the exact amount due to chance. Please roll the dice in front of you, and record the number of the dice below. Your pay will equal to the total amount shown in the column below the number.
