Bah don't be using my old art, I see it there, yes, I drew it. I hate the picture as much as you do but come now, do we need to hate on everything else? Let alone Christianity, I see nothing wrong with being a proud Christian. I haven't bothered to read all of the thread so if I repeat what others say then apologies.

God what the fuck though, no wonder people don't like socializing, it's because anyone who tries to ever point out what they believe in or their own opinion they get bashed for it. I've been trying to improve on art lately, but it's because of places like these, whoever likes to pick on people expressing themselves in a manner that simply won't HURT someone else, it's because of this that I doubt I should even continue to try, let alone express my own opinions or religion. It's just a Christian character, nothing more.

I apologize but this isn't even the first time something like this happened and it's starting to get on my nerves. I'm sorry.
I probably'll forget to check to see if I have responses knowing me, also sorry for the "wall of text" like everyone calls it.

All I want to know is, why Sonic? And if you still have time to answer more, why Sonic with Christianity?

Gotta go autism.

From the dusty mesa, her looming shadow grows. Hidden in the branches of the poisonous creosote.

Oh so this what Hell is.

"The Children of God Christian group actively promotes the view that a sexual relationship with Jesus would be desirable, encouraging devotees to imagine during sexual activity that it is Jesus who is having sex with them, and equate prophecy with Jesus' ejaculation."
