Gief:

I wanted to avoid a debate with you cause too many came down hard on you and I was one of them. I know this will go nowhere and you are set in your ways. But I see a danger here...

Don't team up with those who are unbelievers. How can goodness be a partner with wickedness? How can light live with darkness? What harmony can there be between Christ and the Devi? How can a believer be a partner with an unbeliever?

This way of thought divides people. Period. It will create conflict forever. In the natural world light lives with darkness all the time. You cannot have day without night. A yes without a no.

To preach a message of never to team up with unbelievers will create fear, paranoia, conflict and generate hate. Maybe that is what faith is all about. If your faith is strong then there should be no worry about bad influences. If there is worry then perhaps your faith is not that strong. Just something to think about.

The game glorifies sin. Besides the fact it has demons and pentagrams its very violent therefore it glorifies sin. If you are a christian then the holyspirit is living inside of you and you are making God a part of everything you do.
Do you think Jesus would make Himself a part of this game if you didnt play it?
Sometimes you have to think about the saying/question wwjd. Do you think this game is of God?
Gief isnt talking about the sun and the moon or that type of light and darkness smart guy hes talking about pure good and evil.
The yin yang can be like what you are saying but pure goodnes like God cannot have any evil in it but evil can have some good in it to trick you.
Just like if someone was going to poison you in your drink maybe. The drink would be 99% good (like 7-up or something) but only 1% poison.
We are to be a light to those who dont know the Lord. Talking to them about Jesus is a good thing but hanging out with them and then engaging in sinful activities would be wrong and that is what gief is saying.
All you people want to do is argue about this so you can justify yourselves to play a sinful game.
Theres no use in trying to convince you of this even with scripture because you just want to do what your flesh wants you to do.
Listen to the holy spirit not your flesh and you will see blessings come to you in your life. (Im not saying to listen to God just to get blessed).But you will see a difference in your life when you refrain from these types of games and/or activities.
Try it and see how much less your mind will be polluted with these evil images and how much better you can dicern when God is talking to your heart.

Well, the way you guys are looking at it, pretty much everything is sinful in the video game, book, and media world. Mario would be considered sinful as would pokemon and One flew over the cukoo's nest. I think that there are no defined rules here, and they should be set up by the individual. You could look at like this "to be a true Christian, I must lock myself up in a room and read the bible all day" or you could simply say that you'll restrict yourself from certain M-rated games and foul books. I think it's all in the mind of the Christian comitting the act.

I have played all the Silent Hill games, Resident Evil, Fatal Frame, Alone in the dark and Extermination. I am sick of survival horror. I'm tired of games glorifying twisted images to sell their product. Doom 3 may be a great game to many but I'm burnt out them. It has more to do with balance then some evil spirit taking over my soul.

Gief isnt talking about the sun and the moon or that type of light and darkness smart guy hes talking about pure good and evil.

Then there should be a better way of saying this than don't team up with those who are unbelievers. How far is this mentality going to go? How much conflict will this way of thinking create? What are the odds of the human race knowing all the full answers of what happens after death?

Just like if someone was going to poison you in your drink maybe. The drink would be 99% good (like 7-up or something) but only 1% poison.

I wonder how much poison is really in our foods we buy at the stores? I wonder what religious background the folks have who market these foods?

Anyways, to avoid being redundant, I'll leave it at that.

"Then there should be a better way of saying this than don't team up with those who are unbelievers."

You are aware that I didn't write 2 Corinthians 6:14-18, that was written by the Apostle Paul who said not to be with Unbelievers. God through Him said that for our benefit and protection. The reason?

"Do not be so deceived and misled! Evil companionships (communion, associations) corrupt and deprave good manners and morals and character."
1 Corinthians 15:33

Paul goes on to say in the book of Philippians:

"I hope all of you who are mature Christians will agree on these things. If you disagree on some point, I believe God will make it plain to you. But we must be sure to obey the truth we have learned already. Dear brothers and sisters, pattern your lives after mine, and learn from those who follow our example. For I have told you often before, and I say it again with tears in my eyes, that there are many whose conduct shows they are really enemies of the cross of Christ. Their future is eternal destruction. Their god is their appetite, they brag about shameful things, and all they think about is this life here on earth. But we are citizens of heaven, where the Lord Jesus Christ lives. And we are eagerly waiting for him to return as our Savior. He will take these weak mortal bodies of ours and change them into glorious bodies like his own, using the same mighty power that he will use to conquer everything, everywhere." Philippians 3:15-21

"For God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. God sent his Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through him."

Quickly now kids!! Its time for a good old fashion book/videogame/whatever form of media which might inspire some kind of thought, burning!!!

Come on people, the arguments for why this game is "sinful" are ridiculous illogical pieces of flaming turd.

Gief, frankly, your attitude and the judgement of the minister you talked to is exactly why I left Calvary Chapel in the first place. There are an untold number of Christians who are promiscuous, who are addicted to alcohol or drugs, who are trapped in all sorts of sin, who can come to church on Sunday, say "Amen" in the appropriate places and make everyone think they are a holy person.

Yet, you're outright saying that a person who would play Doom 3 is likely someone who was never saved to begin with. It's a philosophy that is rooted in one verse: "Abstain from all appearance of evil." (1 Thessalonians 5:22, KJV)

Messages: 6,928

What is more important for a Christian to do: to earnestly seek God's will in their life, or to worry about not doing anything anyone considers "sinful?"

If you believe the latter case (as seems to be the case by your arguments), you shouldn't read fictional novels, because some people consider them to be sinful.

You shouldn't play video games, because some people consider them to be sinful.

You shouldn't watch TV or movies, because some people consider that to be sinful.

You shouldn't drive a car, because some people consider polluting vehicles to be sinful.

You shouldn't receive blood transfusions, because some people consider that to be sinful.

You shouldn't go to church on Sunday, because some people consider that to be sinful.

You shouldn't go to church on Saturday, because some people consider that to be sinful.

You shouldn't eat meat, because some people consider that to be sinful.

Shall I go on?

You say that I'm sinning, and that I'm possibly not even saved based on some verses that are talking about associating with idol worshippers and people of bad character. Yet, it was Jesus Himself who said the following:

Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples: "The teachers of the law and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. So you must obey them and do everything they tell you. But do not do what they do, for they do not practice what they preach. They tie up heavy loads and put them on men's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them."

and

"Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to.

"Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as you are. "

and

"Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside also will be clean.

"Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of dead men's bones and everything unclean. In the same way, on the outside you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness. " (Matthew 23:1-4,13-15,25-28)

Be careful when trying to cast judgement on others, Gief.
"Do not judge, or you too will be judged. For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

"Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye. " (Matthew 7:1-5)

Don't team up with those who are unbelievers. How can goodness be a partner with wickedness?

It's the equating of unbelief with wickedness that chaps my hide. How arrogant. Because I don't believe as you do I must not just be wrong, but actually wicked?

It makes me think the author of Corinthians was a self-serving bigoted fool, and makes me wonder how much influence God had over it's final form.

I see lots of righteous slaughtering of denizens of Hell, what do you see?

Would a game where you must destroy a tower that the Sims-like population is trying to build before it reaches Heaven be any better?

Or one where you must destroy every last building and kill every last person in Sodom and Gomorrah in order to win?

I admit that I am a sinner. We all are. While Im not ecstatic over Doom 3, I do play violent video games. It is one of my favorite pasttimes and most of my Christian friends do it as well(They play Halo alot, I hate that game.) I wont lie to myself and say that the game isnt all apples and berries.

Edit: About the righteous slaughtering of demons. Ill bet $2 that at the end of the game. The doomed space marine will realize that all of his work was for nothing and he will either

1.Stay in hell
2.die in some shape or form to the onslaught of demons
3.find out that the demons are spread all over the place.
4.or an interesting twist, he will become one!!!

Basically, im saying that the space marine will end up losing like what has happened in the previous doom games.

Gief, what do you mean by of God? Does God rate and make video games? Your only proof of it being satanic is that it has demons and realistic violence in it...last time I check the Bible had both of those, so does watching that video and even posting it for other innocent Christians to see. Personally, I've been waiting to play it for a long time and Am not taking it too seriously.

Ya your right james.
They probably have those things in heaven huh?
Wow cant wait to go.
Ya Jesus would play it too right james cause when you play it hes right there with you, Living inside of you if you really are a christain right?
Oh and doesnt the term christian mean to be like Christ?
Ya its very christ like to play and/or assosiate yourself with this game isnt it?
I could just see the God of the universe playing a demonic game ..ya ya .
James 4
"What is causing the quarrels and fights among you? Isn't it the whole army of evil desires at war within you? 2 You want what you don't have, so you scheme and kill to get it. You are jealous for what others have, and you can't possess it, so you fight and quarrel to take it away from them. And yet the reason you don't have what you want is that you don't ask God for it. 3 And even when you do ask, you don't get it because YOUR WHOLE MOTIVE IS WRONG-YOU WANT ONLY WHAT WILL GIVE YOU PLEASURE.

4 You adulterers! Don't you realize that friendship with this world makes you an enemy of God? I say it again, that if your aim is to enjoy this world, you can't be a friend of God. 5 What do you think the Scriptures mean when they say that the Holy Spirit, whom God has placed within us, jealously longs for us to be faithful*? 6 He gives us more and more strength to stand against such evil desires."

You want what your flesh wants not what God wants for you.
Do you really think God wants you involved in this obviouslly evil game?
Stop trying to justify that the games not evil and give yourself a license to sin.You just want to obey your flesh.
Heeyyyyyyy....check out this web site.

Well what do you know it has a pentagram on it.
The pentagram is a five pointed star commonly associated with Wicca, Ritual magick, Satanism, and Masonry. The Pentagram has a long and complex history as a religious symbol. Found scrawled in caves of ancient Babylonia, the five pointed star was copied from the star shaped pattern formed by the travels of the planet Venus in the sky. The emblem remained popular through many cultures and time periods- it was called the pentalpha by the Greeks, who believed it had magical properties.

Guese what?
I dont care what the pentagram use to symbolize.
I see it associated with satan.
I see the pentagram in doom3 with demon like creatures.
Put em together what have you got bipity bopity evil.

James 1
"19 My dear brothers and sisters, be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry. 20 Your anger can never make things right in God's sight.
21 So get rid of all the filth and evil in your lives, and humbly accept the message God has planted in your hearts, for it is strong enough to save your souls.
22 And remember, it is a message to obey, not just to listen to. If you don't obey, you are only fooling yourself."

You wanna play the game go ahead.
But dont cause others to stumble telling them its ok when the fact have been laid out.
Follow your flesh or follow Jesus.
Revelation 3
"15 "I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. 16 So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth."

Matthew
21 "Not everyone who says to Me, "Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22Many will say to Me in that day, "Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23And then I will declare to them, "I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!' "

Sorry I dont think it is the Lords will for me to be involved in satanic games like this so I wont.

You think its easy not to play games like this.
I used to play these types of games but the Lord has shown me how evil they are.
Its a battle with your flesh. Dont let your flesh win.
Listen to what the Holy Spirit tells you and your life will prosper.
Its obvious what the Bible says. If you want to make excuses for yourself to play it, have fun in satans world.

AS FOR ME AND MY HOUSEHOLD, WE WILL SERVE THE LORD!

Isaiah53, you seem to assume that I want to play Doom 3. I don't. The game doesn't interest me in the least. I don't even like 1st person shooters!

But I will defend those who would like to enjoy such a game in moderation from those who have a legalistic agenda. Doom 3 is a game, nothing more, nothing less. If you truly believe that the presence of fictional demons boiling up out of pentagrams somehow is a truly evil thing, then there's no point continuing to argue with you. You're obviously going to continue believing that this symbolism somehow has actual power, when it doesn't. Real demons aren't ugly beasts, they're beautiful deceivers... which is exactly why they're as dangerous as they are.

And playing any video game in moderation is hardly conforming to the world. Games are a form of entertainment. Entertainment enjoyed in moderation is perfectly fine. It only becomes a problem if it's done in excess. The world wants us to enjoy everything in excess, but a wise Christian will understand how to enjoy the life that God has given us, while continuing to follow the Will of God. God never said that we have to reject all forms of entertainment to follow Him. So why are you trying to place this burden on the backs of those who are trying to enter the Kingdom of God?

James - you make very good points. It seems we see eye-to-eye on how forms of media (books/film/internet/games/music/etc.) should be viewed from a Christian perspective, allowing for context and personal judgment and choice to play the key role in determining what is good for one's own intake.

And since you've said it better than I ever could, kudos to you.

Wow. Theres something called perception, it may be evil to you but to others its something else. Christianity may be a blessing to you but i see it as a curse, nothing but tearing people apart and causing wars just like every other religion.

James this is what Liar wants you to believe.

I cant believe you defend it so much after all youve gone through.

If you are entertained by games like this and you are a christian then you need to seriously re-evaluate your walk with God.Thats like saying Im entertained by drugs so Ill just moderate myself or Im entertained by porn so Ill just moderate my self.
Its the same thing in that they both put you in a sin-full enviornment. Theres no way your gonna tell me that Jesus would ever involve Himself with these types of activities! So I wont eighther.

James this is what Liar wants you to believe.

So, you're saying that the Word of God is nothing more than the lies of a demon?

Ecclesiastes 7:16-18
Do not be overrighteous,
neither be overwise-
why destroy yourself?
Do not be overwicked,
and do not be a fool-

why die before your time?
It is good to grasp the one
and not let go of the other.
The man who fears God will avoid all extremes.

Moderation is a Biblical concept that you can't seem to grasp. Next time you want to tell me that I'm getting my beliefs from a demon, try backing up your arguments with some verses from the Bible (preferably in context!)

If you are entertained by games like this and you are a christian then you need to seriously re-evaluate your walk with God.Thats like saying Im entertained by drugs so Ill just moderate myself or Im entertained by porn so Ill just moderate my self.
Its the same thing in that they both put you in a sin-full enviornment. Theres no way your gonna tell me that Jesus would ever involve Himself with these types of activities! So I wont eighther.

Newsflash #1: I'm not entertained by games like this (meaning Doom 3, I assume). I've said it about 60 times already: I don't intend to buy or play Doom 3 because it doesn't look interesting whatsoever. I don't even like any of the games that are remotely in the same genre! Get off of your soapbox long enough to actually read my posts before responding to them.

Newsflash #2: Ad Hominem attacks don't fly on this board. All they do is illustrate to everyone that you've run out of viable arguments and can only resort to personal smears.

Newsflash #3: Legal drugs aren't sinful to do, provided they are enjoyed in moderation. I enjoy drinking a caffeinated beverage every now & then. I enjoy an alcoholic beverage every now & then. But I don't get myself so wired on caffeine that I can't sleep, nor do I get drunk when I do drink. Using either drug in excess is both sinful and isn't terribly good for you. One might argue that smoking anything is sinful b/c it's harmful to the body (and the body is the Temple of the Lord). But there are a lot of drugs out there that are legal to use that are not harmful to the body if used in moderation. In the countries where such drugs are legal, there is nothing sinful about using them wisely. (And before you try to label me as a druggie, the only drugs I use are caffeine, alcohol and the occasional OTC meds when I get a cold.)

Newsflash #4: Porn has a clear Biblical basis for why it's harmful.

(Matthew 5:28) Video games do not.

Newsflash #5: Alcohol is a drug. Jesus drank alcohol (wine, in particular), and He never got drunk off of it. Which means He used legal drugs in moderation. So don't try to tell me that Jesus wouldn't use drugs, because Jesus enjoyed the most commonly abused drug of all time!

The problem you and many legalists seem to have with moderation is the fact that it requires a person to have a certain level of wisdom. When I drink, I need to have the wisdom to know what my limit is, and to decline when someone offers me anything beyond that limit. I also have to know how long to wait before I attempt to drive. And no, just being legal to drive isn't good enough for me. I won't get behind a wheel until I'm stone cold sober, which generally means I don't touch alcohol unless I'm going to be at a place for several hours, or unless someone else is driving.

But by teaching that it's sinful to enjoy anything that could potentially be abused, you're basically saying that you don't believe anyone has enough wisdom to not abuse these things. Everyone playing Doom 3 will be tempted to follow Satan and his demons. Everyone who reads fantasy novels will want to become a witch. Everyone who so much as touches alcohol is destined to be an alcoholic.

Frankly, that's why I find your teachings to be so insulting. You're saying that we're like little children that are too foolish to enjoy playing in the front yard without running into traffic.

That's not what Christianity is about. Christianity is about being set free from the law of sin and death, so we have the freedom to pursue God's will in our lives. But you'd rather reduce it again to a bunch of rules. Do not handle! Do not taste! Do not touch!

But as Paul teaches us so well, such rules are useless.
Colossians 2:16-23 (Emphasis mine)
Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ. Do not let anyone who delights in false humility and the worship of angels disqualify you for the prize. Such a person goes into great detail about what he has seen, and his unspiritual mind puffs him up with idle notions. He has lost connection with the Head, from whom the whole body, supported and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows as God causes it to grow.

Since you died with Christ to the basic principles of this world, why, as though you still belonged to it, do you submit to its rules: "Do not handle! Do not taste! Do not touch!"? These are all destined to perish with use, because they are based on human commands and teachings. Such regulations indeed have an appearance of wisdom, with their self-imposed worship, their false humility and their harsh treatment of the body, but they lack any value in restraining sensual indulgence.

Good game so far you guys.

So far I'm siding with Gief and Isaiah but James makes a very compelling case!

Keep these entertaining posts coming all of you!!!

I'm gonna go out on a limb here and say that "satan" or "liar" does not exist. I'm sure there is truth in the Bible, but why do you guys take it as %100 the word of God? Doom 3, God, Satan - They are all things made up by humans of this world. How can Doom 3 possibly be spiritually harmful? Does playing a videogame make you less of a person?

And before you reply that God or Satan exists through your own experiences (James), go see a psychiatrist. Seriously.

I pretty much agree with James completely. I also think that gief (and others) are trying to make the Bible speak out against something it wasn't meant to. Remember, the Bible doesn't always speak specifically to every single possible scenario. When confronted with a particular question of morality that is not addressed in the scriptures, we must try to determine aspect of the dilemma is written about. You cannot simply cut and paste Biblical passages that speak of demons, witchcraft, or what have you and say that these DIRECTLY apply to a stupid videogame. That is simply stretching logic past the breaking point.

Here are the facts, as I see them:

Doom 3 is a fictional game, which takes place in fictional universe, where you kill fictional "monsters". So, exactly where does the sin come into play? You're not actually killing anything, and even then, they are demons. So, no sin there. You certainly aren't worshipping these "demons", and what's more is that these are not demons. These are little bits of code. Nothing more than ones and zeros. So, no sin there, imho. Speaking from a strictly entertainment point of view, if you are a responsible adult, there is nothing wrong with this sort of escapist entertainment.

Gief, as much as I agree with you on most other topics, I simply have to disagree with you here. You simply can't make a good enough case as to why this game should be avoided.

EDIT: Gief, you said the following to me: "Darkeforce:

Jesus said:

"Not everyone who says to Me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father Who is in heaven. Many will say to Me on that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name and driven out demons in Your name and done many mighty works in Your name? And then I will say to them openly (publicly), I never knew you; depart from Me, you who act wickedly [disregarding My commands]." Matthew 7:21-23

Many people who think they are saved are going to find out that they were never saved to begin with in the next life. "

First off, how does this relate to the topic at hand? Secondly, you should be a little more careful about waiving around the "who will be saved, who won't be saved". Salvation is for God to determine, not you. I am secure in my salvation, and playing a stupid game isn't going to affect that.

Ecclesiastes 7:16-18
Do not be overrighteous,
neither be overwise-
why destroy yourself?
Do not be overwicked,
and do not be a fool-
why die before your time?
It is good to grasp the one
and not let go of the other.
The man who fears God will avoid all extremes.

Ok now your useing the scripture out of context.
The man whos fears God will also avoid evil as I have posted so many times and backed up with scripture.

Your sarcastic news flashes are very cute but all they will do is show people that you are have a bit of an arrogance issue.

I can see you have said you dont want to play the game but you defend it like you have it posted all over your walls in your house.

And I didnt say that drugs/porn are exactly the same as satanic games but that they all put you in a sinfull environment but I think the games speak for themselves as you all have seen in the stream gief posted.

"Since you died with Christ to the basic principles of this world, why, as though you still belonged to it...."

Wow that says alot right there. Thanks man.You made it obvious that after dying with Christ why would I want to belong with these evil worldly Games.

"These are all destined to perish with use, because they are based on human commands and teachings. Such regulations indeed have an appearance of wisdom, with their self-imposed worship, their false humility and their harsh treatment of the body, but they lack any value in restraining sensual indulgence. "

Sounds to me like these games are part of the evil in the world which Why would I want to associate myself with since I have Christ in side me esspecially when all these things will perish. I dont think games like these will played in heaven or anything that even resembles the images in these games will be in heaven so then why make myself a part of in now.

The people that sincerlly want to know if its the Lords will for them to be involved in a santanic game like this one already know the right thing to do no matter how many excuses you post.

If you cant see that God has much better things for you in your life than these evil games then there not much more to say to you.

Jesus would not associate Himself with pentagrams or demon like creatures in moderation, let alone at all.

<snip>
The man who fears God will avoid all extremes.

Ok now your useing the scripture out of context.

Really? Let's see. Here it is in context. Note how the meaning doesn't change.

Ecclesiastes 7 (The passage I quoted is in bold)
Wisdom

1A good name is better than fine perfume, and the day of death better than the day of birth.
2 It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, for death is the destiny of every man;
the living should take this to heart.
3 Sorrow is better than laughter, because a sad face is good for the heart.
4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure.
5 It is better to heed a wise man's rebuke than to listen to the song of fools.
6 Like the crackling of thorns under the pot,
so is the laughter of fools.
This too is meaningless.

7 Extortion turns a wise man into a fool, and a bribe corrupts the heart.

8 The end of a matter is better than its beginning, and patience is better than pride.
9 Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit, for anger resides in the lap of fools.

10 Do not say, "Why were the old days better than these?"
For it is not wise to ask such questions.

11 Wisdom, like an inheritance, is a good thing and benefits those who see the sun.
12 Wisdom is a shelter
as money is a shelter,
but the advantage of knowledge is this:
that wisdom preserves the life of its possessor.

13 Consider what God has done:

Who can straighten
what he has made crooked?
14 When times are good, be happy;
but when times are bad, consider:
God has made the one
as well as the other.
Therefore, a man cannot discover anything about his future.

15 In this meaningless life of mine I have seen both of these:

a righteous man perishing in his righteousness,
and a wicked man living long in his wickedness.
16 Do not be overrighteous,
neither be overwise-
why destroy yourself?
17 Do not be overwicked,
and do not be a fool-
why die before your time?
18 It is good to grasp the one
and not let go of the other.
The man who fears God will avoid all extremes.

19 Wisdom makes one wise man more powerful than ten rulers in a city.

20 There is not a righteous man on earth who does what is right and never sins.

21 Do not pay attention to every word people say, or you may hear your servant cursing you-22 for you know in your heart that many times you yourself have cursed others.

23 All this I tested by wisdom and I said,

"I am determined to be wise"-
but this was beyond me.
24 Whatever wisdom may be,
it is far off and most profound-who can discover it?
25 So I turned my mind to understand, to investigate and to search out wisdom and the scheme of things and to understand the stupidity of wickedness and the madness of folly.

26 I find more bitter than death
the woman who is a snare, whose heart is a trap
and whose hands are chains.
The man who pleases God will escape her,
but the sinner she will ensnare.

27 "Look," says the Teacher, "this is what I have discovered:

"Adding one thing to another to discover the scheme of things-28 while I was still searching but not finding-
I found one upright man among a thousand,
but not one upright woman among them all.
29 This only have I found:
God made mankind upright,
but men have gone in search of many schemes."

The man whos fears God will also avoid evil as I have posted so many times and backed up with scripture.

At no point have I disagreed with you about this. But you have yet to prove that Doom 3 is inherently evil. If the main character was worshipping demons or killing innocent humans, I could agree with you on that point. But the whole plot of the game is killing demons! I could even see your point of view if your argument was that the game's violence would tempt some people to commit acts of violence irl. But that's not your argument; your entire argument is based on the assumption that anything with images of "demons" in it must be Satanic. But to say a game is Satanic b/c it has fictional "demons" in it and the associated symbols is a point of view that's next to impossible to defend from a Biblical standpoint. The symbols have no power, nor do the images of demons. To claim that they have any power is nothing short of idolatry in and of itself!

Your sarcastic news flashes are very cute but all they will do is show people that you are have a bit of an arrogance issue.

??? I have an arrogance issue because I corrected key parts of your ad hominem attack on me that were inaccurate? You have a strange concept of humility if you think it's arrogant to refute someone's argument.

If there ever was a game or series that would turn kids into devil worshippers that would have to be the Legacy of Kain series. Here is a series of games that glorifies being either a vampire or a soul sucking wraith.

This series has been out for many years and is quite popular. So far as I know there has not been an epidemic of devil worshipping because of it.

I can't speak for Jesus or God or anything of a sort, but we are all living in our comfortable worlds of television, cars, department stores, bed sheets....etc. Think about what would happen if the economy collapsed and everything becomes total anarchy. When people are desperate things get real crazy. Perhaps Doom 3 is just practice.

Just a thought.

Why do you want to keep on trying to live your life like youre somebody else? Im all for believing what ever you want to believe but you seem so damn full of yourself youre blind to everything else and are trying to damn hard to be something youre not.

Who cares if jesus would play this game or not? The dude hung around prostitutes, alchoholics, and what not, i doubt a game is on his agenda. Hell if hes real and all that other crap hes probably in heaven watching Texas Chainsaw Massacre with his buds, laughing his ass off.

No, but then again, Jesus probably wouldn't have driven everywhere either. I don't see a large portion of WWJD Christians taking public transportation.

I think Jesus would wait for the Linux version of the game, but that's just me.

Then again, to my knowledge he has never even played a videogame...ever! (That is assuming Jesus doesn't have the power of time-travel or anything like that) So how can we even begin to guess how one dude would act in society if he were alive today? The Bible tells us nothing about the favorite videogames of Jesus. We do not know if he was a RPG nut, a RTS freak, an EverCrack addict, or a FPS all star.

What we are really talking about here is a form of legal entertainment for adults with the help of a bunch of ones and zeros. If you don't want to play this game, then simply don't play it. No one is forcing you to buy Doom 3.

The Lord Jesus came to destroy the power of sin and Satan.

"Because God's children are human beings--made of flesh and blood--Jesus also became flesh and blood by being born in human form. For only as a human being could he die, and only by dying could he break the power of the Devil, who had the power of death." Hebrews 2:14

We need to honor and obey Him in every part of our lives, not just Sunday Church.

"Those who obey my commandments are the ones who love me. And because they love me, my Father will love them, and I will love them. And I will reveal myself to each one of them." John 14:21

"All those who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will come to them and live with them. Anyone who doesn't love me will not do what I say. And remember, my words are not my own. This message is from the Father who sent me." John 14:23-24

As I have said in previous posts we are not to be part of this world:

"Don't you realize that friendship with this world makes you an enemy of God? I say it again, that if your aim is to enjoy this world, you can't be a friend of God. What do you think the Scriptures mean when they say that the Holy Spirit, whom God has placed within us, jealously longs for us to be faithful? He gives us more and more strength to stand against such evil desires. As the Scriptures say,

"God sets himself against the proud, but he shows favor to the humble." James 4:4-6

This game Doom3 is part of the world and of Satan. How can we as Christians play something that the Bible forbids?

You may say, "but God's Word does not talk about Doom 3." Correct. But this game takes each of us away from our relationship with Christ by glorifying the very thing our Lord came to destory; Satan and sin! We are suppose to be different than non-believers. If we are really following Christ than we will live as if this world was not our home. And that is what the great men of the Bible said, in many books throughout God's Word:

"Here I am, a stranger in a foreign land, with no place to bury my wife. Please let me have a piece of land for a burial plot." Genesis 23:4

In the book of Hebrews we see what Abraham meant by saying, "I am, a stranger in a foreign land."

"It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going. And even when he reached the land God promised him, he lived there by faith--for he was like a foreigner, living in a tent. And so did Isaac and Jacob, to whom God gave the same promise. Abraham did this because he was confidently looking forward to a city with eternal foundations, a city designed and built by God.' Hebrews 11:8-10

A few verses later we see the writer of Hebrews (which I believe is the Apostle Paul) say that all faithful believers of Christ/God do not call earth their home:

"All these faithful ones died without receiving what God had promised them, but they saw it all from a distance and welcomed the promises of God. They agreed that they were no more than foreigners and nomads here on earth. And obviously people who talk like that are looking forward to a country they can call their own. If they had meant the country they came from, they would have found a way to go back. But they were looking for a better place, a heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a heavenly city for them." Hebrews 11:13-16

Jesus said if we are His followers the world will hate us:

"When the world hates you, remember it hated me before it hated you. The world would love you if you belonged to it, but you don't. I chose you to come out of the world, and so it hates you. Do you remember what I told you? `A servant is not greater than the master.' Since they persecuted me, naturally they will persecute you. And if they had listened to me, they would listen to you! The people of the world will hate you because you belong to me, for they don't know God who sent me. They would not be guilty if I had not come and spoken to them. But now they have no excuse for their sin. Anyone who hates me hates my Father, too. If I hadn't done such miraculous signs among them that no one else could do, they would not be counted guilty. But as it is, they saw all that I did and yet hated both of us--me and my Father. This has fulfilled what the Scriptures said: `They hated me without cause.' John 15:18-25

We are to be a light to the world and reject Satan and all sin. Sin divides, but Christ unites. Sin will make you not want to be with Jesus and not to come to Him. The Apostle Paul said that once we come to Christ our old life is suppose to be over (meaning the way of living for self and sin):

"If it seems that we are crazy, it is to bring glory to God. And if we are in our right minds, it is for your benefit. Whatever we do, it is because Christ's love controls us. Since we believe that Christ died for everyone, we also believe that we have all died to the old life we used to live. He died for everyone so that those who receive his new life will no longer live to please themselves. 2 Corinthians 5:13-15

I love you all and want your lives to glorify our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Let's put off the old way of living and live for the kingdom of God:

"throw off your old evil nature and your former way of life, which is rotten through and through, full of lust and deception. Instead, there must be a spiritual renewal of your thoughts and attitudes. You must display a new nature because you are a new person, created in God's likeness--righteous, holy, and true." Ephesians 4:22-24

In Christ with Love,
Andrew

"For God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. God sent his Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through him."

throw off your old evil nature and your former way of life, which is rotten through and through, full of lust and deception.

Boy that is a tough one to deal with: Throw off my evil nature which is rotten and full of deception. Does not make me feel too great.

Then at the same time I just watched the six o'clock news that talked about stem cell research in Europe. Three people who suffered Lou Gehrig's disease couldn't talk, move or swallow. After stem cell research the very next day they were able to speak and swallow. Something that has never been accomplished before dealing with this deadly disease.

I don't know too much about this subject but my mother died from ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease) last October. Stem cell research is being practiced throughout Europe and Asia. It is not allowed to be practiced here. I wonder why?

Sorry I went off topic but these are the things that I have to deal with when someone tries to tell me my nature is rotten.

Would Jesus play this game and/or associate Himself with this game?

Why cant you answer that one after I have asked you that question time after tim[hr]

Would Jesus post on IGN?
Would Jesus waste his time watching TV?

Would Jesus buy a car? What do you think Jesus would do with his money (if he worked)? Would he spend it on himself, or give it to those who need it.
