Funding:	• Tokyo Foundation for Policy Research
Title of Study:	Populism project
Approved:	• exemption-form-populism.docx • populism-survey.docx • immigrants.txt; platforms.txt; blame-attribution.txt

Thank you for submitting the information on the above referenced project. Please regard this message as notification that the project has been designated EXEMPT from further review based on the following regulations:
Category 2: Research that only includes interactions involving educational tests (cognitive, diagnostic, aptitude, achievement), survey procedures, interview procedures, or observation of public behavior (including visual or auditory recording) if at least one of the following criteria is met: (i) The information obtained is recorded by the investigator in such a manner that the identity of the human subjects cannot readily be ascertained, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects; (ii) Any disclosure of the human subjects' responses outside the research would not reasonably place the subjects at risk of criminal or civil liability or be damaging to the subjects' financial standing, employability, educational advancement, or reputation; or (iii) The information obtained is recorded by the investigator in such a manner that the identity of the human subjects can readily be ascertained, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects, and an IRB conducts a limited IRB review to make the determination required by Sec.111(a)(7).

You have met the CPHS requirements to proceed with your project. It is your responsibility as Principal Investigator to ensure that all other appropriate institutional approvals are obtained. Be sure to contact the CPHS office if the circumstances of your project change such that the federal criteria for exemption no longer apply.

Sincerely,
